

The Midway School collapsed under the weight of the winter snow in early spring of 1984. Study's were held, community meetings, and public involvement, were all part of the death of the old building. Demolition took place in the fall.

3 JAN 1985

James E. Brown, 1984-1985

